A CLEAR CHOICE, VOTE YES FOR A DECENT FUTURE!

As a member of the CWU you will have a simple and clear choice to make when you are balloted for National Industrial Action. It will be Vote Yes for Industrial action including Strike action or Vote No. We have set out the stark difference on voting yes or no when you vote in September.

Vote Yes:-If you want,

- Job Security and not to be made compulsory redundant
- Get a Pay Rise
- Want a Shorter Working Week
- Have a Full Time Job in the future
- Dignity and Respect whilst at work
- Have a national agreement covering how you will work in the future and have a balanced and fair workload at work that is achievable
- No compulsory transfers to different offices and the terms of the Managing the Surplus Framework adhered to.
- Be rewarded for modernising the industry
- Guarantee and safeguard your earnings
- Have a decent pension when you retire
- If you want a strong trade union representing you in the future

Vote NO:-If you want,

- Compulsory redundancies
- A Pay Freeze
- No reduction in your working week
- Your job reduced to part time
- To feel bullied and intimidated at work everyday.
- Come into work on a daily basis not knowing what you are going to do
- Compulsory transferred to another office
- No payment whatsoever for helping modernise the industry
- Earning potentials slashed frozen and cut.
- A reduced and worse pension when you retire
- A trade union that does not fight for your rights and is not allowed to negotiate agreements that safeguard your future terms and conditions.
